

2009 EWGA Foundation Drive for Dreams Campaign
Golf Club Donation Receipt

The EWGA Foundation, a qualified 501c(3) charitable organization, gratefully acknowledges a donation of golf club(s) from:

Donor Name: _____
Address: _____
City/State/Zip: _____

The following golf club(s) were donated to the EWGA Foundation for which the charitable organization provided no goods or services:

EWGA Attendant's Signature: _____
Donation Center Location: _____
Donation Date: _____

Donor's estimate of fair market value of these golf club(s) at this time: $ _____ (*)

 Per IRS regulation, valuation of donated items is the responsibility of the donor. The donation is tax-deductible at the current fair market value of the donated items in their present condition, which is based on what the items would sell for in a thrift store or consignment shop. The Charity, in confirming acceptance of the donation, can not and does not affirm or attest to any valuation.

Please consult with your tax professional regarding if or how to declare golf club donations on your taxes. New Federal income tax regulations require donors claiming deductions for charitable contributions consisting of property other than cash worth more than $500 to file Internal Revenue Service Form 8283, "Non-Cash Charitable Contributions"

The PGA.com Value Guide (www.pga.com/valueguide), The National Standard for Golf Club Values™, publishes fair market values for over 50 brands and 5,000 models of used golf clubs based on ended auction data from the eBay marketplace; the largest online marketplace worldwide for used golf clubs.
